Hummel-Rottgering Wedding.

A pretty wedding was that of Miss Dora Hummel and Mr. William Rottgering, Jr., which was solemnized last evening at 8 o'clock at the German Lutheran church. The church was elaborately decorated with green and white. Smilax in profusion was effectively arranged about the altar and ferns and palms banked the altar and windows. The entire church was a bower of green with white ribbons. Rev. A. L. Iiten pronounced the ceremony. Miss Louise Maurer was at the organ and the Lohengrin wedding march was the processional while the Mendelssohn march was used for the recessional. "Flowers and Hearts" was played during the ceremony. The ushers were Messrs. Robert Rudolph, Charles Rottgering, George Beyer, and Gus Legeay.

The bride looked very charming in a pretty creation of white organza over white silk. She wore the bridal veil and carried white chrysanthemums. A large number of friends witnessed the ceremony.

A reception from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock was given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Hummel, Jr., on Harrison street. The house was a charming effect in green plants and white chrysanthemums. A delightful bridal supper was served. A number of gifts testified to the popularity of the young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Rottgering went right to housekeeping in their home on the Cairo Road.

U. D. C. Chapter.

Paducah chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Mary Burnett on West Broadway. It was the regular November meeting which includes the annual election of officers.

Tea and light refreshments were served by the hostess before the chapter was opened, after which Mrs. David G. Murrell read appropriate resolutions on the death of Mrs. Jefferson Davis. The chapter then went into business session. Mrs. Joseph W. Thompson, who has been the devoted president for several years, resigned from active work, but in honor of her interested and capable service was made honorary president for life. Mrs. James Koger was elected active president; Mrs. John L. Webb first vice president; Mrs. Mary Burnett, second vice president; Mrs. William T. Anderson, third vice president; Mrs. William J. Gilbert, recording secretary; Miss Mary K. Sowell, corresponding secretary; Miss Kathleen Whitefield, treasurer; Miss Susie Thompson, custodian; Mrs. Louise Maxwell, historian. Mrs. Koger called the officers to meet with her on Wednesday, November 14, at 10 a. m. to plan for chapter work.

The regular December meeting of the chapter will be with Miss Mary K. Sowell on West Broadway.

Enjoyable Party.

A pleasant evening was enjoyed at the home of Miss Elizabeth Wilkinson, 1215 Langstaff avenue in Rowlandtown, Tuesday night. Games and music were the features of pleasure, and delightful refreshments were served. Those in attendance were: Messrs. Artie Roe, Vera Phillips, Sanders Miller, Elvitt Fulkerson, Lynn Martin, Will L. Head, Herman Hemphill, Ernie Brake, Goebel Wilkinson, George B. Wilkinson, George Harrison, Misses Overhausen, Rolles, Wilkinson, Mrs. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Wilkinson.

Reception Friday from 3 to 5.

The various ladies' societies of the Broadway Methodist church are arranging a pleasant reception in compliment to Rev. T. J. Newell and family on Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock in the church parlors. All the members of the church and their friends, the local ministers and their families are invited to be present.

Dr. Newell and his family have made many friends here during his four years' pastorate, who will regret to lose them from the city.

Bride and Groom Here.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Bailey arrived last night from St. Louis and other points, where they have been on their wedding trip. Mr. Bailey, who is employed on the Evening News at Jackson, Miss., was formerly a resident of Paducah and has many acquaintances here. The couple are visiting the groom's mother, Mrs. Mary L. Bailey, 819 Broadway.

Pleasant Social Affair.

The Ladies' Mite society of the

First Baptist church will celebrate their thirty-fifth anniversary with a social at the church Thursday evening, November 8, from 8 until 10 o'clock. Music, recitation and an address by the Rev. C. M. Thompson will add to the pleasure of the evening. Friends are cordially invited to come and celebrate the anniversary with the Mite society. Refreshments will be served by the ladies.

Five Hundred Club.

Mrs. Henry L. Bradley is the hostess of the Five Hundred club this afternoon at her home on Jefferson street.

Cotillion Club Dance.

The Cotillion club will entertain this evening with a german at the Palmer House, in compliment to visitors in the city.

Mrs. Carrie Johnson, of North Fifth street, is ill of neuralgia.

Mrs. Henry Cash, of Sixth and Campbell streets, was this afternoon removed to the steamer Buttorff. She is ill of fever and is en route to Nashville for treatment.

Dr. R. H. Starks, of Benton, is in Paducah.

Miss Mona Bauer, of Golconda, is visiting Mrs. Sam Liebel.

Miss Jennie V. Miller, copyist in the county clerk's office, is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rieke, of Eighteenth street and Kentucky avenue, have a daughter in their home.

Mr. C. E. Wiley, of Marion, Ill., formerly an express messenger running into Paducah, is visiting Jailer Jim Eaker. He will remain in Paducah several days. It is his first visit in seven years.

Miss Annie Marshall, of Missoula, Mont., and Miss Hallie Richmond, of Clinton, arrived this morning to visit Mrs. Hel Corbett and Mrs. Charles Thompson.

Broken-Hearted.

Akron, O., Nov. 7.—Broken-hearted over being reprimanded by her mother for quarreling with a younger sister, Grace Fulkerson, east of this city, has been missing since last evening and her parents believe she drowned herself in Springfield lake. The girls were doing the supper dishes when they quarreled. Their mother reprimanded Grace. A half hour later the girl was gone. She left without money. The police have searched the city.

L. M. Cornillaud's Funeral.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock the funeral services were held for the late Mr. L. M. Cornillaud, Sr., at his residence, 1032 North Tenth street. The Rev. William Bourquin officiated. The burial was in Oak Grove cemetery.
